Situated on Senegal's Northern most border, bordered by the mighty Atlantic Ocean to the west, Mauritania to the north and one of the most fertile wetlands in the world to the east, St Louis is a sportsman's paradise. resident Whistling duck, Pygmy geese and Spur wing Geese feed on the Parc de Diodji wetlands. Senegal's liberal bag limits mean that this really is a wildfowling paradise. Costs are about 30% cheaper than anything we have seen and the quality of the operation and the sport will ensure you a memorable trip.

Bushpigs 13th Dec – 13th Mar Early morning and Evening stalking for local bushpigs is not to be missed, these wily pigs are not an easy quarry and a client will do well to fill his bag limit. Fishing: ~ During the winter Dec ~ Mar, there is the chance to take the boat out and fish for the Big Groupers and Sharks that inhabit the reefs just off shore. This adds up to an excellent day's sport and also helps to keep the lodge restaurant supplied with excellent fresh fish. A direct shipping channel has been cut through the sand bar allowing access to the Bluewater within 10kms of the dock, this means with our fast 30ft boats, you are fishing within 20 mins. Brand new international class gear has been used to equip all the boats and highly qualified Skippers and deckies on each of the boats.
